

HFIA attends 2022 Farm Fest

HFIA was present at the Hamakua Harvest Farm Fest, in Honoka'a, Hawai'i Island, on May 22nd, 2022. At this event Executive Director, Aspen Billiet, and Secretary, Peter Simmons, met and talked with community members interested in forestry.

HFIA director, Aileen Yeh, owner of Aileen's Nursery, donated 15 seedlings and HFIA member, David Longacre, owner of Kawika Tropical Fruit Orchards, donated three potted plants. Plant donations were distributed to booth visitors throughout the day.

Peter talks with a booth visitor about local forestry misconceptions and issues.

HFIA President, Don Bryan, visits Aspen and Peter, and chats with booth visitors as well.
